Advanced

Ages 8-13

Use nuanced vocabulary and refine your grammar. Students debate about current events and study important speeches made throughout history.

Baptist minister and social activist who led the civil rights movement in the United States from the mid-1950s until his death by assassination in 1968. His leadership was fundamental to ending segregation of African Americans in parts of the United States. Below is an excerpt from his Strength to Love sermon in 1963.

“

“Returning hate for hate multiplies hate, adding deeper darkness to a night already devoid of stars. Darkness cannot drive out darkness; only light can do that. Hate cannot drive out hate; only love can do that. Hate multiplies hate, violence multiplies violence, and toughness multiplies toughness in a descending spiral of destruction.”

Can this class help with school interviews?

All LWL classes make sure students are well equipped for their next steps at school.

In our CCPS class, our discussion questions, focus on class etiquette, and various class activities mirror private school interviews.

We also offer private school consulting exclusive to LWL families. Nearing the admissions period, families are welcome to request additional prep in accordance with their school's requirements.

Next, students are led through English worksheets to help them articulate in full sentences with the correct grammar and sentence structure.

Knowing your audience is key, so students read a story to familiarize themselves with their poem or speech of the day. Students learning in-person complete a hands-on project as well!

Students then practice speaking with the appropriate volume, speed, body language and audience engagement.

This program aims to help students express thoughts with clarity while also teaching various poems and speeches to broaden their horizons.
